EYES REMOVED.—Charles Lee, colored, who had been bitten and beaten by his abusive husband, Nicholas Lee, who had been employed at Gunston, Fairfax county, for many years as an engineer was taken to the Emergency Hospital in Washington yesterday. As stated in the Gazette at the time, on last Thursday week Lee exhibited signs of mental derangement while alone in his home with his wife, and about 2 o'clock the following morning he began to snarl and claw at his wife. Her eyes were torn from their sockets and her face and her body bitten in a score of places by the madman. Dr. Swan M. Burnett, who has charge of the eye clinic, assisted by the hospital staff, performed an operation immediately upon the woman's arrival at the hospital, and removed the remnants of her eyes. Her numerous other wounds, as well as those on the eyes, had become infected, and the woman is threatened with abscess of the brain and her injuries will probably terminate fatally. Lee is in custody.

STEAMER LIBELLED.—When the steamer Newport News reached this city about half-past seven o'clock last night on her way to Norfolk she was boarded by Deputy U. S. Marshal J. F. Glover and formally libelled for damages in a sum between ten and eleven thousand dollars, growing out of the collision between the Newport News and the ferry steamer Columbia in September last. The suit was brought by the Washington Steamboat Company, the owners of the Columbia. The officials of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, has been informed of what was to be done, and had previously prepared a bond in the sum of $22,000, which was given before Commissioner John S. Fowler, and the steamer, after a short delay, was released and proceeded to Norfolk. The libelant was represented by Mr. J. R. Caton, of this city.

THE CATHOLIC FAIR AT LYCEUM HALL.—The Catholic fair at Lyceum hall was again largely attended last night. St. Peter's Commandery, with a drum corps of thirty-four pieces, were in attendance. Several of the officers of the Amerigo Vesputi, now at Philadelphia, visited the fair last night. About half past ten o'clock the bunting that covered the Cuban booth caught fire, through the carelessness of the janitor, and a conflagration was narrowly averted through the efforts of Rev. H. J. Cutler and Mr. Wm. West, both of whom had their hands quite painfully burned. The fair closes next Thursday night.

"SHARPS AND FLATS."—The "Sharps and Flats" will produce the comic opera "Patience" at the Opera House next Wednesday evening for the benefit of the Alexandria Kindergarten.
